Ship Flags

Ship Flags may be obtained from commercial vendors of Sea Scout flags. On ScoutShop.org, enter "unit flag" in the search box to connect to Carrot-Top Industries, <https://carrot-top.com/bsa?page=1>, supplier of official flags (3'x5') and miniature flags (18"x24") by special order. Below is the standard lettering arrangement for Sea Scout Ship Flags:

First Line: Sea Scout Ship 100; or Ship 100*
Second Line (optional): Chartered Organization Name
Third Line: City, State
Fourth Line (optional): Council Name

* The Ship Name may be added to the first line.

National Flagship, and National Flagship Fleet Flags

Each year, the National Flagship is presented with a National Flagship Flag at the BSA National Annual Meeting, or another venue convenient to the Ship. The standard arrangement for the National Flagship Flag is show above right.

Ships that are included in the National Flagship Fleet may purchase their own National Flagship Fleet Flag. These flags should be similar to the sample above right with the second line reading, for example: "2022 National Flagship Fleet"

Prestige Flag Co. is a commercial vendor of Sea Scout Flags; including National Flagship and National Flagship Fleet Flags. To order, contact pam@prestigeflag.com.

Sea Scout Leader Flags

National officials fly the leader flag with four stars, one in each corner. Territory officials fly the leader flag with three stars, positioned in the upper and lower left corners and in the upper right corner. Council and District officials fly the leader flag with two stars, positioned in the upper and lower left corners. Ship Skippers and other ship officials may fly a leader flag with one star, positioned in the upper left corner, or the flag of the ship. Any vessel in Sea Scout service may fly the the basic Sea Scout flag (without lettering or stars).

Standard leader flags and the basic Sea Scout Flag (both 18"x24") are available as special orders from Carrot-Top Industries; <https://carrot-top.com/bsa?page=1>
