COMMUNICATIONS

- Remember to continue checking out the LinkTree for important resources, and using the forms. Thank you to all who applied for everything from the National Quarterdeck to National Flagship Fleet!
- As the term draws to a close, keep checking the social medias for important updates, announcements, and more!

-Katie (National Boatswain's Mate of Communications)

NEWS BULLETIN

Bravo Zulu to all National and Territory Sea Scout Leadership Awards and National Flagship Fleet winners! Thank you for all your hard work and dedication to the program.

Keep an eye out for more information on Sea Badge Courses, and Bravo Zulu to everyone who has completed their Seabadge course this year! Thank you to those who have lead a course as well.

-Evan (National Boatswain)

PROGRAM FEATURE

Greetings! We are nearing the end of the term, so keep posting with #shipsinaction we close out the year!

- We are releasing a unit program guide to help units who do not have a council quarterdeck coming soon at the end of this month when we aim to release the finalized council boatswain handbook!
- Keep listening to the podcast put on by your support leads!
- Congratulations to Ship 502 for winning the National Flagship!
- Congratulations to all SSLA winners!
- Keep up the good work in all that you do for your units and councils as we move towards the summer. If the wind will not serve, take to the oars!

-Levi (National Boatswain's Mate of Program)
